Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Academic Program The university's academic program is composed of instructional, research, and public service activities. The university awards baccalaureate, masters, and doctoral degrees. In academic year 2017-18 it enrolled 10,894-degree students and 5,846 non-degree students. The university's research and public service activities enable faculty to explore new areas of education, learning and knowledge and provides non-instructional services to individuals and groups external to the university.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Scholarship And Financial Aid The New School seeks to make its education as affordable as possible by offering financial support to students based on financial need, academic achievement, and other qualifications through scholarships and work study programs, which are funded by institutional funds and federal, state and private grants. In academic year 2017-18, 9,466 students received institutional scholarships and 9,851 students received at least one form of institutional or public scholarships, grants, loans, or work study awards.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Educational Support The university's educational support program is composed of academic support and student services. Academic support provides support services, such as libraries, academic technology, and faculty and curriculum development, for its primary missions of instruction, research and public service. Student services provide various services to students, which contribute to the students' emotional and physical well-being and to their intellectual, cultural, and social development outside the context of the university's formal instructional programs.

Part III, Line 1a	ART COLLECTION FINANCIAL STATEMENT FOOTNOTE The university's art collection consists of works of art, including prints, paintings, photographs, and sculptures that are held for the purposes of public exhibition, education, and research. Each of the items is cataloged, preserved, and cared for, and activities verifying their existence and assessing their condition are performed by the university's curators under the supervision of the office of the provost. The art collection, which was acquired through purchases and contributions since the university's inception, is not recognized as an asset on the balance sheet. Purchases of collection items are recorded as expenses and contributed collection items are not reported as contributions. Proceeds from sales are reflected as increases in unrestricted net assets.

Part III, Line 4	PUBLIC EXHIBITION The mission of The New School art collection, in recognition of its historic commitment to art as a vehicle for sociopolitical change, is to advance the importance of art as an agent for personal and collective transformation. As a curricular resource for all areas of study, the role of the collection is to conserve, interpret, and present works of art to the students, faculty, and greater community. New acquisitions support the vision of the university as an environment for innovative thinking and artistic experimentation. HISTORY OF THE COLLECTION The university's legacy of supporting the freedom of artistic expression began in 1931 with the commissioning of two historically significant mural cycles: Jose Clemente Orozco's A Call for Revolution and Universal Brotherhood, and Thomas Hart Benton's epic America Today. Over the years, the university has hosted a roster of accomplished artists, writers, dancers, designers, historians, social scientists, and philosophers, creating a flourishing laboratory for experimentation and innovation. As an institution that embraced such diverse figures as poet Robert Frost, anthropologist Margaret Meade, art historian Meyer Schapiro, and composer/conceptual artist John Cage, The New School has always stood at the forefront of self-discovery and visionary social, intellectual, and aesthetic experimentation. The New School art collection was established in 1960 with a grant from the Albert A. List Foundation. The collection, grown to approximately 2,000 postwar and contemporary works of art, includes examples in almost all media by some of the most innovative and creative artists of our time. Installed throughout the university campus and transforming the public spaces into lively forums for examining contemporary art, the collection offers students and faculty a rare opportunity to engage with art on a daily basis, making it a distinctive component of their educational experience. The collection has continued its tradition of incorporating site-specific works into its public spaces.

Part V, Line 4	ENDOWMENT FUNDS The university's endowment is composed of approximately 304 individual funds established for a variety of purposes, including scholarships, professorships, faculty development, lectures, and research programs. The endowment consists of both donor restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the board of trustees to function as endowments. Net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds functioning as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor imposed restrictions. The university's individual endowment funds are pooled for investment purposes. The investment portfolio is managed to achieve a prudent long term return. The university relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The university targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity based investments to achieve its long term return objectives within prudent risk constraints. The endowment assets are invested to provide a real total return that preserves the purchasing power of the endowment, while generating an income stream to support the academic activities of the university. Actual returns may vary from this goal in any given year. The university's endowment spending policy is designed to provide a sustainable and predictable flow of funds to support annual operations. The spending policy is intended to balance current spending needs and to preserve the endowment's future purchasing power. The university applies a board specified spending rate to a moving average of endowment investment funds. The purpose of using a moving average is to smooth out any wide fluctuations in the market value. Endowment earnings in excess of the spending rate are added back to the principal of the endowment investments. Prior to fiscal year 2012, the board specified spending rate was 5%. Beginning with fiscal year 2012, the spending rate was reduced to 4% using a "soft landing" approach. The fiscal year 2011 appropriation will be used as the annual appropriation until the investment portfolio increases sufficiently over time to result in an effective 4% spending rate. Thereafter, the 4% spending rate would be applied against the average of the previous 16 quarters' fair value of the endowment portfolio.

Part X, Line 2	FIN 48 (ASC 740) FOOTNOTE The university is exempt from federal income taxes pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, except for any unrelated business income activities. The university recognizes the effects of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not of being sustained. The university evaluates, on an annual basis, the effects of any uncertain tax positions on its consolidated financial statements. As of June 30, 2018 and 2017, the university has not identified or provided for any such positions.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	CONFLICT OF INTEREST PROCESS The New School's policy on conflicts of interest applies to all Board of Trustee members, the senior management, as well as certain designated staff and faculty. The policy recognizes that members of the university's Board of Trustees and senior management may, from time to time, be associated, either directly or indirectly, with companies doing business with the university. The policy prohibits members of the Board of Trustees or its committees, and senior managers of the university from participating in any decisions in which he or she (or an immediate family member) has a material financial interest. For members of the Board of Trustees and senior management, the university requires an annual disclosure of significant financial interest in, or employment or consulting relationships with, entities doing business with the university. When such relationships exist, measures are taken to address the actual or perceived conflict to protect the best interest of the university and ensure compliance with relevant conflict of interest laws. The policy also requires designated administrative and academic staff, and faculty to review the policy every year and provide to the Office of Human Resources a written certification that he/she is in compliance with the policy and which discloses any relationships that may represent a conflict of interest as defined by the letter or spirit of the university policy on conflicts of interest. In addition, the annual certification requires disclosure of any activities, including outside employment and professional relationships and/or transactions which might appear or actually involve a conflict of interest with one's fiduciary, employment, or other relationship with the university.

The foregoing shall include additional compensation and benefits for these deans, chiefs, and officers annually, such as housing allowances, bonuses, severance packages, or any proposed new benefits. The Committee is charged with assuring compliance with intermediate sanction procedures and requirements to the extent applicable to any compensation. The Committee also recommends the compensation (including salary, benefits, and other remuneration) of the President of the university to the Executive Committee for review and approval. Further, the Committee is charged with developing salary and benefits for incoming presidents and renewal of contracts for incumbent presidents for submission to the Executive Committee for approval. Additional duties of the Compensation Committee include reviewing compensation for comparable positions benchmarked against peer groups and hiring an executive compensation consultant on a regular basis. The Committee also reviews internal candidates proposed to serve as interim deans if needed, and annually reviews the list of university employees whose salaries categorize them as highly compensated individuals under IRS pension provisions. Additional authority and duties are conferred upon the Compensation Committee in accordance with the needs and initiatives of the Board. COMPENSATION REVIEW PROCESS FOR OFFICERS AND KEY EMPLOYEES As noted above, the Compensation Committee annually reviews the list of university employees whose salaries categorize them as highly compensated individuals under IRS pension provisions. The Compensation Committee conducted a review and approval of compensation as outlined above during tax year 2017.
